

WORLD BOWLS INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS 2022

CONDITIONS OF PLAY (revised 16 February 2022)

2. Prior to the start of a match, each player will be allowed two trial ends.
All disciplines will be played in 8 sections subject to final level of entries.
In the Singles disciplines played in 8 sections the top placed country of each section will play the second placed country from another section in the first knockout round.
In the Mixed Pairs discipline the top of each section only will proceed to the knockout rounds.
3. Each sectional play match will consist of two sets, each set being played over 7 ends. The winner of each set will be the player with the most shots at the completion of the 7th end. The winner of the match being the best of two sets. (A match tie breaker is not a set.) In section play all 7 ends of a set must be completed.
In knockout play each set will consist of 9 ends and a set will be decided if, at any point, it becomes impossible for one player to draw or win the set given the number of ends left.
4. If the shot scores are tied after the last end of a set, the set is drawn. If the match is tied (two drawn sets or one set each) after the two sets have been completed, a match tie breaker consisting of 1 end will be played to determine the winner. If the tie-breaker end is tied a further tie-breaker end will be played.
5. In all cases a tied end will count as one of the 7/9 ends played.
6. Scoring
Three points will be awarded for a match win and nil points for a match loss.
Section winners will be determined as follows:
 - i) Highest number of match points scored.
 - ii) If match points are equal, the player with the highest number of sets won will be the winner.
 - iii) If match points and sets won are equal, the player with the highest net total of set points over all matches in the section will be the winner.
 - iv) If match points, sets won and net total of sets points are equal, then the player with the highest shots difference over all matches in the section (excluding tie-breaker ends) will be the winner.
